Dear Mr. Beynon:

I am glad to send you a letter that may be of service to you in making application to the India Office for a position in the Indian Civil Service. Your record in the University has been a most distinguished one. In your second year you had a first class in Oriental Languages; in 1913 a double first in Greek and Orientals, as also in 1914 in the same subjects. You were granted the Governor-General's Gold Medal in 1914, and in the same year the J. D. Maclaren Gold Medal in Classics, and in 1915 you received the degree of Master of Arts with honours.

I am sure that your distinguished record in this University will justify your being granted a full opportunity for a good position in the service for which you are applying. I am confident also that you may be relied upon completely to do faithfully and accurately any work at which you may be placed by the Government authorities.

Hoping that you will be successful in your application, I am,
